THE LAST WEEK

MONDAY: Read Mark 11:12-33

- What so outraged Jesus about the Temple practice of his day?
- How is the fig tree like the nation of Israel? How is the new Israel meant to be different?
- How does Jesus link his authority to the ministry of John the Baptist?

TUESDAY: Mark 12:1-12

- How is this parable a record of the story of Israel so far?
- Where does Jesus bring the history up to date?
- When did the leaders of the nation realise that Jesus was talking about them?

WEDNESDAY: Mark 14:1-31

Passover was the most important festival of the Jewish calendar marking the liberation of the Jews from the bondage of Egypt

- Who gets to be anointed in the OT? Which of these might this woman have thought Jesus to be?
- How does Jesus apply her actions to himself?
- How does Jesus change the meaning of Passover by his own words & actions?

THURSDAY: Mark 14:32-65

- How do we see Jesus becoming more isolated through this passage?
- Who's testimony finally condemns Jesus and why?

FRIDAY: Mark 15:1-41

- How does Pilate see through the motives of Jesus' accusers?
- Where do we see the ultimate isolation of Jesus in the events of Good Friday?
