407 EAST PHASE 2A OPENS TO TRAFFIC JANUARY 2018

407 East Phase 2A, from Harmony Road to Taunton Road, will open to traffic in the new year.

"The Highway 407 East project is a huge part of the transportation network for this part of the region and it's important for this region's future," Ontario Minister Transportation Steven Del Duca said last week at a ceremony to announce the planned opening of the highway to traffic.

"The opening of another stretch of Highway 407 will have a significant impact on improving the daily commute and quality of life for Ontario families," Del Duca said.

The remainder of Phase 2 will connect Highway 407 to Highway 35/115 and includes Highway 418, which will provide another north/south connection to Highway 401. This final phase is on schedule to open by 2020.

At the peak of construction, Highway 407 East Phase 2A saw more than 700 workers from across the Greater Toronto and Hamilton area working on the addition of the 9.6 kilometers of highway. The Highway 407 East Phase 2 project is being designed, built, financed and maintained for 30 years by Blackbird Infrastructure 407 GP, a partnership between CRH Canada Group Inc. and Cintra Infraestructuras.
